MOTOR COACH CO.'S PLAN WOULD ELIMINATE STREET CAR TRANSFER FOR HIGH SCHOOL STUDENTS

Several Hundred Attucks high school students who live in Norwood and vicinity should be given the advantages of direct transportation in one continuous passage from their homes to the school, a distance of ten to thirteen miles, members of the Indianapolis school board were told Tuesday night by State Senator Jacob Weiss, legal representative of the South Side Motor Coach corporation with offices in Beech Grove, which seeks a franchise to furnish this service. Operations of this company are at present limited to the south side of the city.

The motor coach company would provide the direct transportation for ten cents a passage, a reduction of one cent from the rate now charged by the Indianapolis Street Railway company, Mr. Weiss said. At present, he explained, colored children compelled to attend the Jim-crow high school must make two transfers at cost of four cents in addition to the initial seven cent tariff.

"The necessity of spending time waiting on street corners to make these transfers in pleasant weather is an inconvenience," the senator said in support of his plea. "In cold, stormy, winter weather, it is a downright hardship," he asserted.

Similar application for a franchise had been denied the motor coach company by the Board of Public Works on the objection of the street railway company, discussion of the proposal developed. The application was brought to the school board Mr. Weiss said, because they alone have authority to grant it. It also carries the approval of the Public Service Commission, he asserted.

Mrs. J. Don Miller, vice president of the board, acting in the absence of the president Julian Wetzel, announced that the matter would be taken under advisement.

The petition of the parent-teachers association of the school requesting that funds be allocated for interior decoration of Attucks was pigeon-holed with the label "no funds available or in prospect."

DOUSTED ELK LEADER FINED FOR DRAWING GUN AT LODGE MEETING IN EFFORT TO BE REINSTATED

Guy U. Blaine, unwilling former exalted ruler of Indiana Lodge No. 104 I. B. P. O. E. W., was fined $25 and costs by Judge William Shaeffer in Municipal court Monday, on his conviction on a charge of carrying concealed deadly weapons with which he is alleged to have threatened members of the lodge attending a meeting at Hod Carriers hall a week ago. Motion of the defense counsel for dismissal of the case without a presentation of defense by the accused was denied.

Attorney for Mr. Blaine, W. S. Henry, immediately announced his intention to file an appeal. Blaine was permitted his liberty on his filing of an appeal bond of $500.

Evidence of the trial Monday, which was a continuation of a trial held Friday, was mainly concerned with introduction of testimony of an eye witness who told the court he saw Blaine pass the gun to another person upon arrival of police in response to an emergency call that intimated "Hell was about to break loose."

Dismissal Denied
Defense attorneys fought strenuously to gain the court's approval of their contention that the case should be dismissed, because of the insufficiency of the evidence; 2, that the law gives the right of every member of a civil organization, such as the Elks, to carry arms going to and from their meeting places; and 3, that since it was not shown that the barrel of the gun Blaine is alleged to have drawn was less than twelve inches in length, it could not be determined

SEEK M'NUTT AS INDIANA NAACP GUEST SPEAKER

MARION, Ind., Oct. 10.—(ANP) The Indiana State Conference of Branches of the N. A. A. C. P. will hold its 5th annual conference in Marion, Nov. 3, 4, and 5th. Mrs. Katherine Bailey, of this city, state president, headed a committee which called on Gov. Paul V. General, Miss Faith Brown, state secretary and Dr. Lucien Merriweather, were cordially received by the governor who expressed his pleasure in accepting the invitation.

Marion is the city in which the double lynching occurred, August 7th, 1930. President Bailey is credited through the organization of forcing the county to hold trials of the lynchers.

Majority of Indianapolis Boys Serving in C. C. C., California, Not To Return

(By BLANCHE SIMS)

Climaxing a beneficial outdoor stay of nearly six months in California forests and mountains, Indiana's contingent of the Civilian Conservation Corps will be returning home soon via Fort Knox, Kentucky.

Another six months period however has been authorized by the President. Approximately fifty per cent of the eastern men, now stationed in California, have indicated their desire to remain the second six months term. A high percentage of Indianapolis boys will stay in the West.

Company 542 is most fortunate in having highly trained, considerate army officers in charge. They are: Major Louie P. Patten, Captain S. B. Wiener, Captain R. O. Utke, and First Lieutenant Robert T. Hazlett. Company 542 is located near East Highlands, California.

During their enrollment the boys have enjoyed themselves in many and varied ways. In camp there have been many forms of recreation including baseball, track, tennis, volleyball, horseshoe pitching, and boxing. Over week-ends the most popular past time among the boys was "Seeing California". Trips were taken to Old Mexico, Catalina Island, Long Beach, Santa Monica Beach, Hollywood, Beverly Hills, and Los Angeles. In fact, all places of interest were visited.

Musical talent of the Santa Ana Cone Camp (Company 452), which is composed mostly of Indianapolis colored lads, was displayed in several ways. The most popular musical organization was the camp jug band, known as the Jug-O-Maniacs. This band entertained and performed nightly on the stages of several of California's largest theatres. The Jug-O-Maniacs entertain, also weekly over station KFXM in San Bernardino; thus the boys enjoyed themselves as well as furnished entertainment to others of the Sun-kissed Valley of California.

High qualities of leadership and ability were manifested in the persons of many of the camp's enrollees. The highest position available in the company (that of first sergeant) was ably filled by husky, young Clyde Ashby, 819 Maxwell St. Pleasant Shack and Hubert C. Gordy, brilliant, young Crispus Attucks graduates, have most capably demonstrated their abilities as company clerk and head first-aid man, respectively. The position of news reporter was handled by Andrew W. White, Jr. Other responsible positions were held by Woodrow Myers, Chester Moore, William Prim, Kenneth Smeltzer, Cliff Robinson, Alfonso Wright, General W. Lawrence, Orville Satterfield, and Howard Flowers.

All the members of the C. C. C. voice the opinion that the Corps has proved of inestimable value to them physically, mentally, and morally.

A large contingent of replacements made up of Marion county boys is expected to head for Camp Knox and the west next week. To date seven hundred have been enrolled for enlistment in the C. C. C. In the selection, however, preference is to be given to those on poor relief rolls.

HAMPTON GETS $20,000 GIFT

NEW YORK CITY, Oct. 10.—The will of Edward Severin Clark, one of the heirs to the fortune built on the Singer sewing machine recently filed in the Surrogate's office of Osage County, New York contains a bequest of $20,000 for Hampton Normal and Agricultural Institute of Hampton, Virginia.

POLICE FACE DILEMMA IN SOLVING OPPOSING CLAIMS OF TWO WOMEN HAVING SHOT MAN TO DEATH

Those who are inclined to a facile commiseration of the folly and foibles of modern youth, may very appropriately devote their sympathies to Mesdames Arethel Wright, 17, and Bessie Fredericks, 34, who are languishing in the city jail with self-inflicted charges of murder hanging over their heads.

Each of the women, widow and mother-in-law respectively of Oliver Wright, 24, who died in the city hospital Saturday of a bullet wound he received in a family row with the two women three weeks ago, has told police that she was responsible for his death. Detectives in search for motives, and neighbors have generously suggested many, have only been able to guess as to which on of the dad man's relatives actually belongs the responsibility for his premature death.

An Unheeded Warning

Mrs. Bessie Frederick, with something of the hardness of the much maligned "mother-in-law" in her voice, recounted a long list of grievances, which she plagued her memory of her worthless son-in-law.

"I warned him repeatedly that the wages of his sins would be his death. He was so terribly mean, someone was sure to kill him some time. He married my daughter when she was a first-year student in high school at the age of 15. Ever since I have had to support them, for he just would not work. He pretended to be insanely jealous, so much so that if she went out to the store and stayed a few moments longer than he thought necessary, he would jump on the helpless girl and beat her unmercifully. I've done everything I could to get him to act right, but I guess it was no use. He simply was no good."

Boy Buried Monday

Wright, described by those who knew him as a tall, unhandsome sappling with the agility of a tiger, was buried Monday afternoon from the chapel of the Patton Funeral home. Earlier, the young widow had been taken to the home by a juvenile court officer and permitted her last look. The faint flicker of a cynical snicker deepened for a moment, the natural immobility of her countenance. Then suddenly she burst into the comforting solace of a woman's tears. Almost as suddenly, as though abashed by the momentary let-down of her "keeping a stiff upper lip", this strangely well controlled young woman, apparently craned the shadows of a haunting tragedy from her heart and calmly strode to the door of the beautiful chapel and prepared for her closely guarded return to the female prison.

A Defeated Denouncement

Over in the neighborhoods of 450 West Thirteenth street, Wright's home and 1306 and 1312 Fayette street, the homes of the young widow and her mother the folk rebroke. Mrs. Frederick served a jail term six years ago for shooting her husband. The daughter, they say, only recently took a "poke" at one of the neighborhood women she accused of intimacy with her husband. The mother was an employee of the Senate Avenue Glove factory.

While the idle speculate on the fate of the two women, more curious folk probably would like to know what would happen if it were not true that "dead men tell no tales".

ASKS NRA GIFT OF ROOSEVELT

WASHINGTON, Oct. 11.—Robert Fauntleroy, a 19 year old Negro youth, after hiking from Philadelphia to Washington went to the White House to request $80 from President Roosevelt. He said he thought every one was to get that sum from the Government under a NRA regulation. He was sent to Gallinger Hospital for observation. Fauntleroy got as far as the executive offices, where he was stopped by White House attaches.

MRS. ESTHER PORTER JONES, popular member of the city's social set and former social worker who has accepted a position as clerk at the Kroger grocery Co.'s store, in the Walker building, to "boost business". Can she do it? Come on folk and show her how!

Accident Victims

Sue Pa. Editor

HAGERTOWN, Md., Oct. 12.—(CNS)—Damage suits totaling $41,500 have been filed in court here by Josephine Sims, John Ely, John Sims, Nannie Ely, and Althie Rutland, against Robert L. Vann, of the Pittsburgh Courier and special assistant to the Attorney General of the United States.

The suits are the aftermath of the head-on collision of Mr. Vann's car with the car of the plaintiffs on the National highway at Funks-town four miles from here on Friday, September 15, when he was seriously injured. The plaintiffs claim to have been injured, alleging Vann's car crashed into their machine.

Mr. Vann, although convalescing, is still confined to the Washington County (Md.) Hospital here having received a fractured skull and many cuts and bruises. All the others in the accident were severely injured. At one time one of the women was not expected to survive.

INDIANA ANNUAL CONFERENCE A.M.E. CHURCH HOLDS FOUR DAY SESSIONS AT MARION

Rev. R. L. Pope, Pastor of Bethel Church Here, Is Transferred to Michigan Upon Reaching Time Limit; Book of a Million Names Draws Wide-Spread Interest

MARION, Ind., Oct. 9.—(Special to The Recorder)—The Indiana conference of the African Methodist Episcopal church closed its four-day session here at the A. M. E. church Sunday night with the reading of the appointments for the coming year by the intrepid Bishop H. B. Parks, senior prelate of the denomination and presiding bishop of its fourth episcopal district.

Members of the conference and the great throng of lay members and visitors who attended the sessions were profuse in commendatory expressions of the seventy-four year old dignitary, who though suffering from injuries to his hip received in an accident some time ago, supervised with deep concern and sympathetic interest in the work of the conference. Mrs. Naomi King, Los Angeles, Cal., his daughter accompanied him and served as his secretary.

Most important of the changes in appointments was the transfer of Rev. R. L. Pope, for the past eight years pastor of Bethel church, Indianapolis—the largest church in the conference—to Michigan. He is succeeded by Rev. R. C. Henderson, transferred from the Chicago conference and former pastor of Ebenezer, Evanston, Ill.

Total receipts reported at the conference amounted to $5,701.63. Dollar money collections were $4,239.70. $648.16 was reported by the Woman's Mite Missionary society.

Dr. R. R. Wright, president of Wilberforce university an institution supported by the denomination, told a large audience at a meeting Friday night known as "Educational Night", that the time has come when the Negro must conquer his environment and not merely be satisfied to adapt himself to his surroundings. Musical numbers were given by Miss Mary Elizabeth Walls, Wilberforce university. On display and commanding universal interest was the "Book of a Million Names", an enormous volume that will some day rest in the Congressional library at Washington, D. C. Conference members heard with

CRISPUS ATTACKS HIGH "TIGERS" IN 6-6 DEADLOCK IN INITIAL FOOTBALL CLASH WITH ALUMNI

1933 Team Shows Much Power Deception, and Speed Against Alumni Huskies; Watford To Groom Squad For Gary Tilt Next Saturday

(By LEE A. JOHNSON)

PERRY STADIUM, October 7.—The Crispus Attacks high school "Tigers" ended the three year winning streak of their Alumni by holding them to a 6-6 tie in the opening game of the season here at Perry Stadium last Saturday—before a large crowd of football fans.

The Watford coached machine showed signs of brilliancy in their sparkling fake plays that featured their fleet backs who operated behind a well coached line.

In playing the Alumni, the "Tigers" have shown immense power and speed to cope with the weight and experience which they had to buck against in the Alumni, ex-collegians, ex-amateur stars who saw action in the game.

Throughout the game, Attacks kept the ball in the Alumni territory and mid-field most of the time, with Woods, White, and Rocco carrying the ball, gained many yards from scrimmage.

The "Tigers" were the first to score when they punted to Barnes, a substitute back in the Alumni lineup, who was tackled hard and fumbled the ball; four "Tigers" tacklers swarmed on the ball to place it on the 11 yard line.

Woods made two thrusts at the line and pushed over the touchdown, and when the team lined up for the extra point, White missed the kick.

On a short pass, Talbot to L. Floyd, the Alumni scored on Floyd's thirty-five yard trek as he shook off a number of would be tacklers to march to the goal line where he was tackled, about a yard over. Talbot attempted to pass for the extra point, but it was knocked down.

Late in the fourth quarter of the game, White shook off several Alumni players to make a threatening forty yard run to the Alumni twenty-three yard line. The "Graduates" held for downs, and the game ended with the ball at the Alumni forty yard line in the possession of the Alumni.

Martin, Knox, Smith, Hardin, Turner, Diggs, T. Floyd, Sims, Warren, and several others showed up well for the new coach, Alonzo Watford, and will be a hard bunch of young huskies to stop by a high school team.

For the Alumni, L. Floyd, M. Brown, Froman, Talbot, P. Johnson, Coleman, Sanbury, and Cornett showed up while they were in the fray. John Street, coach of the Alumni team substituted freely in the last half of the game in an effort to find a winning combination to put the game on ice for his charges.

Gary Next

Roosevelt high, Gary, will be the host to the "Tigers" next Saturday when the "Watfordmen" will try their stuff on the "Lake County Panthers".

The Panthers lost their first game to a white team up in Spring Valley, Ill., and are determined to stop the "Capitol City Tigers" when they come up there October 14th.

I. U. - NOTRE DAME TO CLASH

BLOOMINGTON, Ind., Oct. 12.—After battling with the Gophers in Minnesota last Saturday with their stars on the sidelines, Coach E. C. Hayes and his "Fighting Hoosiers" will be primed for the invasion of the Irishmen from Notre Dame in their Homecoming classic Saturday October 14th.

Fitzhugh Lyons, star end on the Crimson team and Jesse Babb, backfield ace, will see plenty action in the game.

Both of these stellar Negro stars showed up in excellent style against the University of Minnesota and will bear much watching against the Irish.

BUTLER FACES ACES

(By SHIRLEY H. WINFREY)
CINCINNATI, O., Oct. 12.—Led by Wells, sensational short stop on Coles American Giants, the All Pros, a team made up of National League players, was defeated by the Negro Leaguers 3-0 in a great baseball game.

Wells hit a home run in the game while Cornelius held the Reds scoreless in the game, with help of his team.

Lincoln Lions Held Scoreless by Dunbar

EVANSVILLE, Ind., Oct. 7.—The Lincoln Lions were held to a scoreless tie by the heavy Dunbar high school team of Morganfield, Ky., this afternoon on the Lincoln field here.

The Lions are green but fast this year, and put up a good defense against the rushes of the hard hitting backs from the "Blue Grass" state.

The Lions scoring threat, a pass combination, Gill to Culver worked well advancing the ball to midfield several times, but lacked the punch to get that hard fought for touchdown to win the game.

The Lions will journey to Owensboro, Ky., for their next encounter next Saturday with another highly touted Kentucky team.

MUNICIPAL HOLDS FISK

LOUISVILLE, Ky., Oct. 7.—Led by a fighting captain who never backed up an inch, the purple band of Louisville warriors outplayed and out-fought a heavier, more experienced Fisk eleven on the local gridiron, Friday afternoon. Three times they carried the ball down into the ten yard zone, and once they lugged it up across the last white line out in the field of play, but here the Fisk team held. The game ended in a scoreless tie.

Frank Ransom, Indianapolis boy, saw action in the Fisk game. The crowd was estimated at 1500.

TIGERS BEAT LE MOYNE

TUSKEGEE INSTITUTE, Ala., Oct. 12.—(ANP)—Tuskegee opened the football season here today with a well earned victory over the Le Moyne College Eleven of Memphis Tenn., by a score of 13 to 0. Approximately three thousand persons were present.

During the first 20 minutes of play, Coach Abbott used his second string men. The weather was a little warm for football, but both teams showed up well and gave the respective coaches an opportunity to work out several of their promising men.

Tuskegee plays Morris Brown of Atlanta next Friday, October 13th, at Legion Field, Birmingham, Alabama.

KNOXVILLE LOSES OPENER

KNOXVILLE, Tenn., Oct. 12.—An inexperienced team representing Knoxville accepted a stinging defeat at the hands of Morristown college 21-2, in their opening game here last Friday afternoon.

On Road to Fame at Indiana U.

FITZHUGH LYONS, END,

will see plenty of action when Indiana University stacks up against Notre Dame University in the Crmison Homecoming game at Bloomington Saturday. Lyons is making a determined bid for All American honors. Last Saturday he was alert and all over the field. He grabbed a fumble and raced 55 yards scoring the lone touchdown for the Hoosiers against Minnesota.

LILLARDS PLACEKICK WINS

CINCINNATI, Oct. 8.—(Special) Joe Lillard, sensational halfback on the Chicago Cardinals pro-football team, made a sensational place kick that won the game for his team 3-0 after both Cincinnati Reds and Chicago Cardinals failed to score because of the slippery conditions that marred play. Lillard booted a nearly blocked placement from the fifteen yard line directly between the uprights.

N. C. STATE WINS

PETERSBURGH, Va., Oct. 12.—North Carolina State College defeated the Virginia State College Trojans on the latter's home grounds, last Saturday, by the score of 7 to 0, in a hard fought and thrilling game.

The game was featured by the ferocious line playing of Malone, Doones and Bryant, and the passing of Malone for North Carolina; while in the long scintillating and runs, the kicking and passing of "Shags" Courtney provided the outstanding thrills from the Va. Side of the encounter.

There are several Hoosiers on the Va. State team, they are: Courtney, Lane, Gary, Ind., Daniels, Brown, Indianapolis.

MCKINNEY ELECTED CAPTAIN

TUSKEGEE INSTITUTE, Ala., Oct. 12.—(ANP)—At a meeting of the letter men of the Tuskegee Institute football team today, Ben McKinney, tackle, was elected captain of the team. McKinney is a senior and his home is in Tulsa, Oklahoma.

KENTUCKY STATE BEATS WEST VA. IN HOT BATTLE

ALUMNI FIELD, Frankfort, Ky., Oct. 12.—Unleashing a not-to-be-denied attack in the final quarter, a slashing K. S. I. C. eleven ripped to shreds West Virginia's Black and Gold to the tune of 15-6.

A hard driving line led by "Wild Man" All-American Coleman, the knife-like thrusts of Captain West, 65 yard punts from the left foot of "Kimpity" Kendall, tell part of the story of an angry Green and Gold Thorobred charging to victory. The rest—an intercepted pass by Reed, a forty-yard pass, Kendall to Hardin, and a safety chalked up in the third quarter.

For the first forty-five minutes of play, West Virginia's solid line slowed the Thorobreds down to a walk. The break came in the first quarter. (In this session the playing was so fast that the play by play reports to Western Union fell five paces behind the scrimmage). On a 66-yard run behind beautiful interference Moore scored the first touchdown of the game.

The teams then battled up and down the gridiron till the third quarter when a blocked kick netted the K. S. I. C. first score—a safety.

At this point it seemed that the struggle would end 6-2. Coach Kean's spinners, reverses, and off-tackle stunts were effectively bottled by the Black and Gold defense. On the offensive, West Virginia used a five man interference on out-back-end runs to great effect. There were also well-timed passes over the center of the line. The see-saw battle kept up till the final quarter-hour. In this last quarter the sustained cheering of the "Tucky" fans braced up to the squad for the drive to victory.

Kentucky State now has one great hurdle out of the path for Wiley and the National Championship. October 14 the "Green Wave" of Wilberforce rolls down to challenge the Kentuckians. If Kentucky plays like she played in the first three quarters today, she will surely lose. But if Coach Kean's crew sustains that powerful drive exhibited in the last fifteen minutes, nothing—not even Wilberforce—can stop her.

Winter League To Open at Los Angeles

LOS ANGELES, Calif., Oct. 12.—(ANP)—With motion pictures stars of both races on hand including probably Dempsey, Max Baer or both; a parade of decorated cars and bands plans are being made by the Winter League management to celebrate Prosperity's return with a mammoth opening on Oct. 14th at White Sox Park.

They are the revamped White Kings, Pirrone's All-Star, The El Paso Mexicans, and Wilson's Colored Giants. They will play every Saturday, Sunday and Holidays.

RECORDERS DRAW IN FIRST GAME OF CITY SERIES

Series With Monte Carlo To Be Resumed Next Sunday at Pensy Park

PENSY PARK, Sunday, Oct. 12.—The Indianapolis Recorders and the Monte Carlos ended the first game of a three game series in a tie at 2 all because of the Six o'clock Sunday law last Sunday before a large crowd who braved the cold weather to see these two great city teams in action.

Bonner, a young right hander for the Carlos pitched a sensational game, allowing only three hits to the "Printers", and striking out 11 men. Then he drove in the tying run for his team.

Errors by Baldwin and Payne checked his team from winning the game with a shutout victory, despite the marvelous pitching of Waddy who was relieved by Vance.

The Monte Carlos have a good team having picked their team from the best players in the city.

Next Sunday the same two teams will engage in another game at Pensy Park in the second game of the three game series, and if good weather prevails a record crowd is expected.

Manager Baldwin will start Vance on the mound for the "Printers" with Payne behind the bat. The Monte Carlos will have Jackson, Williams, and Bonner on the mound and Hawkins or D. Williams catching.

To get out to the park, take an East Washington car to State street, walk two blocks south and turn left to the park.

SLAUGHTER STOPS MATTHEWS

ST. LOUIS, Mo., Oct. 6.—Sammy Kid Slaughter, Indiana middleweight champion stopped Allen Matthews, St. Louis Negro, after ten rounds of a gruelling battle before a packed gallery here last night. Slaughter gave Matthews such a lacerating beating that he was in much agony and distress early in the battle, but failed to knock him out.

COMPLETE DRILLS

MIAMI, Fla., Oct. 12.—(Special) Coach Oscar J. Edwards, former athlete at Indiana State College, has just completed the second week of intensive drilling of his Booker T. Washington high school charges in preparation for his opening game of the season.

With not a loss from last year's team, and a few new men added to his crew, Edwards has his eye on the state championship.

One of the famous colored umpires of the east is also coming west this winter to work with the white umpires. This year's team has been carefully selected from the greatest Negro teams in the leagues and the players are the same ones that the white press has recently been declaring should be on the white major league teams.

"Mule Suttles, Larry Brown," Turkey Stearns, "Steel arm" Davis Wells, and Foster of the American Giants; Datchell pitcher, and Jack Russell, second sacker of the Pittsburgh Crawfords; Bell also of the Crawfords; the well-known "Biz Mackey now with the Philadelphia All Stars; Willis and Bailey of Nashville are leading lights in this great line-up. Mr. Wilson is also delecting for Charleston Judy, Wilson and Lundy.

TIGER ROY WILLIAMS STOPS ROSY KID BAKER AT ARMORY IN OPENING INDOOR SHOW

Eddie Allen, Local Youngster, Stops Miksell in Curtain Raiser; No Segregation at Armory

(By J. ROMEO THOMPSON)

Tiger Roy Williams of Chicago and Rosy Kid Baker of Indianapolis exchanged compliments with leather covered dukes at the opening boxing show of the Armory in the main go of a lively card in which Williams came out conqueror by a wide margin.

The going was a little rough for Baker who went into his usual shell, and was repeatedly drawn out by terrific rights to the ribs. He absorbed many hard shooting rights and lefts to the stomach which almost raised him from the floor, and peddling backward he withstood a shower of blows to the face and head.

Williams was the aggressor throughout the fight and showed that he was master of the in-fighting, while he delivered the most effective blows at will. He says that Baker is plenty tough and can absorb lots of punishments, which makes him a hard boy to send to the canvas, or knock out. There were no knockdowns and both boys seemed to be in good condition after the melee. The Recorder score card shows as follows:

TIGER ROY WILLIAMS

Williams — 5 6 6 6 6 6 6 6 6 6 59
Baker — 5 4 4 4 4 4 4 4 4 4 41

In a furious encounter between Eddy Allen Colored Indianapolis middleweight, and Loui Miksell also of this city, Eddy proved the master of the situation all the way except the third round which was even. The colored lad sent his opponent to the canvass for a short count in the first round. Both boys threw plenty gloves from going to gong and had the crowd on its feet many times. Allen absorbed his share of the punishment with a smile but was never in danger of changing two for one in most cases.

Eddy Allen is a crowd pleaser because he likes to fight and has a promising future if he can only get the chance. He also has a pleasing personality and is well liked by all with whom he comes in contact. Allen weighed 156 and Maksell 158. Eddy Allen is leaving Indianapolis for a short time to fill engagements in Burlington, Iowa, and Quincy, Illinois in the next two weeks.

Tony Cangelosie, New Orleans, 125 lbs., took a severe laising from Paul Lee, 126 lbs., hard hitting and fast Indianapolis boy who had the advantage after the first round which was even. Tony proved to be a game little fighter but went out by a technical K. O. in the 4th round of their 8 round schedule after being knocked down twice in the second and three times in the third. Jimmy Fox knocked out Bernard Cagany in the third round of the top six in the Bantam class and Paul Waggoner took the decision in a fast six rounds which went the limit.

New Policy
Under the new management of the Armory there seems to be a different atmosphere than in the past in regard to the colored fighter and patron. The fighter is getting a better brake and a square deal by referees. The attitude toward the colored patron is more wholesome. The former jim crow policy has been abolished. Mr. William Miller, the new promoter, is responsible for the change in policy and assures all his colored patrons the utmost courtesy and a privilege to buy seats in any part of the Armory desired. According to a statement by Mr. Miller, you are cordially invited.

We hope that this policy is continued.

GO TO CHURCH SUNDAY

Of all the many social institutions born of civilization for the benefit of mankind, the Christian church is rightly recognized as unquestionably the most sacred and infinitely essential.

Very fortunate for the peoples of this earth, whether Jew or Gentile, that the church is destined to continue, uninterrupted, to discharge the noble task assigned to it; carry out its mission of gospel spreading;
lifting the spiritual side of mankind
to a higher and higher plane.

Throughout the ages, in spite of bitter opposition, vicious condemnation and poisonous persecution amid malicious criticisms inspired by sinister forces, false prophets and propagated by venomous enemies of the faith, the Christian church has stood the test, weathered the storms of human infamy as no other institution has, or was ever capable of weathering them.

That the church is here to stay is evidenced by the high place it holds among all other Christian institutions of the earth. That, of course, is as it should and always will be.

There is need, however, for greater public interest in the church.
There is need for vastly greater congregations if the church is to do its work right.

Civilized humanity is not unim-pulsive of the fact that but for the mighty influence exercised by the church for good throughout the world, sav-agery, and worse would still be the revolting lot of suffering mankind.

We all, or should be appreciative of that one blessed circumstance.

And so, it behooves mankind to be appreciative of this, the greatest of all Christian institutions, support the church, that it might the better be able to discharge its lofty duty; disseminate its message of needed inspiration among the peoples of the earth.

But to help the church, one must attend its devotional services, help to strengthen its membership and contribute liberally to its interest and upkeep.

In our daily humdrum life men and women are prone to forget their duty to the church; ignore their inseparable obligation to the Great Creator and thereby commit a transgression against the will of God we can not afford to be guilty of.

Let the people of Indianapolis attend some church next Sunday.

ELECTIVE OFFICE ASPIRANTS

The question as to whether Negro aspirants to elective offices should step forward into the arena of things political and run for positions of weight in our system of government is occupying first place in the minds of progressive voters in Indiana.

Citizens in every wide-awake community are more insistent than ever that members of the group should participate more prominently and substantially in the shaping of our administrative programs.
And they are quite right.

Of course, there is a predominant purpose back of this popular demand for intensified political initiative on the part of capable race men and women; it is revealed in our insatiable, but never-less, legitimate desire to serve in all departments of government, and thereby contribute our part to our country's development and general progress.

This newspaper is, and has always been wholly in accord with this growing sentiment among our people, and has so expressed itself on numerous occasions.

We are cognizant of the fact that ours, as a race, is the inescapable duty to work wholeheartedly and co-operatively together with a view of effecting a measure of greater representation for our people in all branches of government.

It is highly necessary that we should.

It is true that our claim to a full-measure of constitutional rights and privileges as citizens of this land of democracy is incontestable.
But the fact remains we can only hope to acquire and enjoy these rights by means of united and intelligent action by our people as a whole.

One of the crying needs of our people today is more representation for Negroes by Negroes.

In Indianapolis this need particular is being felt in the courts where there is not one member of the group on the bench in an elective capacity.

This is a serious moral discrepancy which should be corrected at the earliest possible time.

There is need for race men of the right caliber to aspire to these offices; enter the race, win or lose, and help the group to fight for its legitimate place in the sun.

NEGRO IN SKILLED TRADES

"Fluctuations in the importance of Negro skilled workers follow the course of general industrialization, but, in addition, are related to complicating social factors which are only casually affected by recurrent economic cycles," according to Charles S. Johnson, in the October issue of Opportunity.

Among other things the writer pointed out that "Until 1920 almost nine-tenths of the Negro population lived in the South, and much of the labor of the section was performed by them."

Mr. Johnson further observes that until about 1880 "our people 'held an extremely strong position in the skilled trades of the section as a result of both custom and special training under the institution of slavery.'"

We are told that Negro artisans of that period contributed to the pushing of so-called poor whites into occupations described by Mr.
Johnson, as "Most debasing insecurity."

The article gives an impressive exposition of the complete shifting of many crafts, notably shoe making, harness making and blacksmithing, "Either as a result of factory development or as a result of the passing of the necessity for articles of manufacture."

Many artisans, both white and colored have disappeared from these fields according to the writer.
Much of the decline of Negroes in certain trades has been closely related to displacement by white workers, the article states.

"There are consistent gains for both skilled and unskilled Negro workers in the building construction," said Mr. Johnson in his summary, "but this is a field which, in terms of unemployment, has suffered most violently of all large industrial fields from seasonal and cyclical depressions and from technological development."

However, it is worthy of note that, considered as a whole, the Negro increase in all these skilled crafts "is twice as rapid as the increase for all workers."

Mr. Johnson is authority for the significant statement that "the older concentrations of Negro skilled workers are being broken up."

This is having the effect of scattering the latter in smaller numbers over more fields.

The article, which was read before the recent Rosenwald Conference on the Economic Status of our people was a constructive statement of facts.

VIRGINIA, FLORIDA SPEAK

Thirty-three states are now officially on the wet side of the fence in the national question involving repeal of the eighteenth amendment to the constitution of the United States.

Virginia, once among the strongest of dry states, and Florida have cast their lot with thirty-one other commonwealths in favor of repeal.
Press dispatches contained the information that the victor chalked up by repeals in the Virginia elections was by a majority of almost two to one.

The country is aware of the circumstance that three more wet victories will doom national prohibition to oblivion.

From every indication the wet tide continues to sweep the nation with irresistible force.

That was expected all along by the wets, naturally.

Prohibition was never sufficiently popular with the people of this country to insure its proper enforcement, hence the land-slide vote fled up everywhere, so to speak, against the eighteenth amendment.

Dry forces in Virginia, according to the same authority, were not only routed on the question of national prohibition. They also suffered defeat on the issue of state prohibition.

It is significant that not one of the thirty-three states that have expressed themselves on the question as to whether or not the liquor law should remain in the Constitution has rallied to the dry cause.

In the meantime six states will vote on the question November 7.
Friends and enemies of prohibition alike will watch the event with interest.

CRUSING 'ROUND

BL LEE JAY MARTIN

Ideals and opinions expressed in this column are those of the writer, and are presented without regard to their agreement or disagreement with the editorial policy of The Indianapolis Recorder—The Editor.

If the NRA lacks anything in inspiration and confidence in the future, old JBC is making it up. Anticipating that the "hard" stuff will soon be legal, frozen money is thawing out into bright and sparkling, sandwich and beer shops. They are dotting the corners, and blocks like the days of old and what looks more like the old days than William Roberts behind a bar, even if it is supposed to be a lunch counter.
The new Owl Cafe at Indiana Avenue and Vermont Street with William Roberts and Fred Moore in charge, puts more life in the "Avenue". The old owl winks you into this new, clean, modern and well lighted place, in fact too much light for an owl's abode. Folk still like to believe that they are slipping into some place for a drink.

Then there is another new "corner" at Indiana Avenue and California Street, where Leo Bond used to hold forth. This new place is the "Blue Eagle Inn" and do doubt ready to do us apart. If these new places are to be our new saloons they will certainly be an improvement over the old ones and a royal "comeback" for old John Barley Corn. If the NRA is not wrecked before it gets to Ethiopian money, such places will be good money makers, but we should not grab the hand of old "John" too eagerly, he is a very unwelcome guest once he gets a hold on you or your home.
However, we hope the new ventures succeed. We have had enough failures.

I took you to Nashville, Tennessee a couple of weeks ago and left you there and it would be an unkindly act if I fail to bring you back. While in Nashville we attended what we first thought to be a vacant lot ball game, but it proved to be the city's only park for our people, the baseball diamond woefully unkept, the worst looking part of the park only the back screen and the high stationary rubber bases kept it from looking like any other field; but on this rugged field those boys really played ball, there was an argument but it was settled easily and quietly by an official-looking person with a very large ledger book. The park contained a tennis court, croquet ground, golf course, club house of brick construction, ground level swimming pool, slides, swings and every car. The befuddled copper blew his whistle but no one moved, no one could move, and finally the patent cop grew desperate and ordered the occupants of the disable car to get out and push. The traffic snarl was straightened out as we drove away through we still hear the shrill whistle of the traffic policeman in the park.

One old gentleman eighty-three years old living in and around Nashville all his life, never had been in any trouble, never been arrested, liked by white and black alike, in his dry humor asked me if my wife were my daughter and then laughingly at the fun he was having.
We later on, stopped at a very cozy sandwich and beer shop near the park run by a very pleasing gentleman and here in the big city of Nashville we found a boy that did not know what an ice cream soda was, and vanilla flavor was complete Chinese to him. He stood speechless until the proprietor came to his rescue and explained that they had no fountain service but had been serving ice cream and
pop. To be within the law the proprietor serves a nice little lunch with your first bottle of beer.

After being kept awake a good part of the night by the meows of the night cats of Cedar street and a taxi driver stepping on his starter for three hours more or less,
trying to start his car, we arose early Monday morning, drove up to Fisk University to pick up the wife and bid the daughter goodbye, then back to 4th and Cedar Streets at a Greek restaurant for a cup of coffee, the only place we knew that was opened at such an early hour.
We added an order of cakes, and if I am any judge of size at all, those hot cakes were every bit of three inches in diameter and three quarters of an inch thick, seeing that was coming, we cut our order to two orders, half of which we managed to eat. A customer alongside of us was in a sad plight; he had paid extra for butter in order that he would have enough to make a thorough covering of his huge stack of waffles, then started to eat, he got down to his last cake, took a bite of it and said 'kinder' half to himself, "I can't go no further."
He looked at the remaining cake as if it had done him wrong and that he should average himself.

Nashville is a combination of hills and valleys, magnificent of buildings owned and operated by both races down town, the janitors and porters own has a handsome building on Jefferson St. Fine residences, tumble down shacks, schools of higher learning second to none, three colleges for Negroes.
Streets are narrow with street cars running all over the streets sometimes in the middle then on the side and keep you dodging them all the

What Do You Think?

The Indianapolis Recorder read-opinions on the general interest, civic, political or what not in this column. Communications must be brief and to the point avoiding offensively partisan, denunciation, all or personal subjects or state-lustrative. As an evidence of good faith, letters must give the name will not be used if so desired.

ALIBIS

Ex-Governor Leslie still clings to his alibis, he claims that he could have warned Governor M'Nutt in time to stop the recent Prison break at Michigan City.

That particular alibi reminds the Negro voter of the four years marked with blunders that Mr. Leslie spent as governor of the state of Indiana. His office received word of a "break" as thousands times worse to the State of Indiana and in addition to that placed a stigma on our great State which will last as long as Indiana exists.
Mr. Leslie did not have to get permission from anyone then; he could have issued the necessary orders and stopped the break which I have reference to. His office knew but satisfied with clinging to alibis, and satisfied with its position on the fence, it did nothing.

Negro voters, Ex-Governor Leslie still remembers Marion's damning lynching episode and always will. If by some chance it has been allowed to slip his memory, I would like to take this opportunity to serve notice upon Mr. Leslie and the republican party that the occurrence has not been forgotten by the Negro voters of Indiana. The Negro voter will not only remember it but will tell his children's children about it, for it all happened under a republican administration which was particularly not ed for its "Alibis."

AFTER COLLEGE — THEN WHAT?

The Negro Must Trust President Roosevelt

By KELLY MILLER

If the New Deal is to be a square deal, the Blue Eagle must take the Negro under his wings along with the rest. Usually the Negro is not considered as an integral part of the general equation but must be dealt with by a special formula. The N. R. A. was intended to reduce the ranks of unemployment, raise the level of wages and living, and thus promote the return of prosperity.
No particular mention was made of the Negro or reference to him. Is he not an American citizen and entitled to share and share alike with the general citizenship of the country. Although he is perfectly willing to take his chance, he is not given a chance. Special dispensation must be made for him or he will be left out of the picture. He is in truth and deed the forgotten man, and must ever and anon remind the nation of his existence and presence as a factor which much be reckoned with. This is of course an annoyance and a nuisance to statesmen who are engrossed in the general scheme of things. If Congressmen DePriest had not catapulted the Negro into the Forestry act by a special amendment he never would have been thought of in recruiting the forestry corps.

The Secretary of the Interior, mindful of this condition, has appointed a special assistant to keep his department advised as to the economic demands of this group.
The Secretaries of Commerce and Labor have under contemplation like assignments for this purpose.
Sweeping complaints against the N. R. A. are perhaps premature before these special agents have had time to look around and relate the National Recovery Acts more directly to the requirements of the race. In the mean time complaints are accumulating as the days come and go. The Negro is left standing in the outer court while the work goes on inside. His unemployment list is growing larger and larger;
his bread line is growing longer and longer. The winter is approaching and the need of clothes, food and shelter is threatening. He can only trust Roosevelt and look to the Blue Eagle for shelter under his protecting wings. There is no doubt that President Roosevelt thought and hoped that there would be a place for him. But unfortunately our nice laid plans do not always work out smoothly in fulfillment. The codes do not cover agriculture and domestic service, the two pursuits in which three-fifths of the race find a livelihood.
This is because the individual character of these occupations is such that they cannot be easily regimented.

In the big industries where the codes operate, the working man is turned over to the tender mercy of the corporation and the labor unions. The corporation—some of them—are perfectly willing to give him a chance if the labor unions will permit them. The labor organizations who dominate the workman's sphere promote their welfare through collective bargaining; but unfortunately the Negro is the forgotten man in this collectivity. Contractors and employers, in too many instances, are supplanting black by white workman where the minimum wage scale of the codes are above the allowance usually assigned the Negro workman. Against this flagrant discrimination there seems to be no effective remedy. Mr. Ickes, long known as our good friend, had decided on complaint brought to him, that the contractors and employers have no authority under the law to disstate to the employer as to the raciality of his employees.
We can only resort to the American sense of justice and fair play. The price of commodities is rising. While the Negro is kept below the minimum wage or shut out altogether, unemployment is increasing within the race which much pay the highest commodity prices; he is out of work and out of funds. The black man is perplexed every way he turns. He has but one recourse—to trust Roosevelt.

During the presidential campaign of eight years ago, the slogan resounded far and wide, "Trust Massachusetts". The nation did trust the State and the statesman. The Negro trusted them too but found himself in vain. Now comes President Roosevelt and his New Deal.

Heaven Bound To Be at Murate Theater

With a new cast of principals, new costumes, and new sets, "Heaven Bound", the musical pageant of spirituals which was so enthusiastically received in Indianapolis, last year, will again be shown at the Murate theatre, Michigan and Massachusetts, October 21 to 23.

Under the direction of Mrs. Jean Paul Hines of Albany, Georgia, who has achieved wide acclaim through the production, "Heaven Bound", will have a cast of twenty-three principals, coming here from the South, as well as a "heavenly chorus" of one hundred and fifty voices, members of choirs of local churches.

"Heaven Bound" resembles the old miracle or morality play, in that it attempts to depict the kind of life one must lead to gain the reward of Heaven. The scene for the play is the gateway of Heaven, to which comes the rich and the poor, the joyful and sorrowful, all seeking admittance. Each sings a song, depicting his life on earth.

St. Peter is there to welcome or reject them. Among those who seek admittance are the wayward girl, the hypocrite, the wandering boy, and the rich man who tries to bribe his way into Heaven.

The story is told in pantomime and melody, with a "scroll reader" explaining the scenes and the musical numbers which comprise the pageant.

Spend Wisely, Make Love Courageously During October, Says Abbe Wallace

Libra, the sun sign of those born in this month, is ruled by Mercury which is in the ascendant during the early part of October, ushering in an era of contentment and prosperity which has long been absent from the forecasts of the times.

That this is merely the beginning of better times goes without saying, yet the sky has been so dark and overcast that the slightest ray of light is hailed with hope for the brighter future. There are still many hardships to overcome, many obstacles to surmount before anything like a lasting reign of prosperity comes to the nation and the world, yet the turn has definitely been made and we are now wading through the mire, toward the dry land.

Foreign complications take the world spotlight for the month. These will soon be straightened out, however, with advantage for the United States. It is fortunate that this is true, since the nation's hands will be full with inward strife and perhaps bloodshed. It will take the best thought and prompt action upon the part of our executive and his advisers to avert racial conflicts in the south and labor unrisings in the north and west. The war cloud hangs low over the countries to the south of us bringing threats of disruption and intervention.

The death of a prominent world-figure under mysterious circumstances is forecast for the latter part of the month. Also a woman of note figures in a wide-spread scandal.

October is a beneficent month for lovers. Many marriages are visualized for the month. If you are in love and thinking of marriage this will be the best time to consummate the event. Lovers' quarrels can best be patched up during the month.

SCHOOL NOTES

The Parent-Teacher association of School Number Nineteen, will have its regular meeting Wednesday October 18, at 3:15 p. m. Mr. Russell A. Lane, principal of Attucks High school will be the principal speaker. Mrs. Winlock will render a solo. Mrs. Grubbs will give a reading. Rev. Hendricks, instrumental solo. Mrs. Dorothy Boles is the president; Mrs. Rose H. Thompson, principal.

School Fifty-Six held its first Parent-Teachers' Association meeting of the year in the auditorium on Wednesday October 4 at 3:15 p. m., with the new president, Mrs. C. Webster, presiding. The committee elected to serve, during the year, with their chairmans as follows: Finance, Mrs. Crella Lee, chairman; Program, Mrs. Bullenger, chairman; Publicity, Miss Vivian Reynolds, chairman; Miss Mary Dangerfield was elected secretary. A special speaker at the meeting was Mrs. W. H. Armistead. Dr. Armistead was also a visitor. On Wednesday November 1, a safety meeting with Sergeant Owens in charge, will be held. Mrs. Jeanette Carey, principal.

Night Schools
After classes are being organized for adults, who are unable to attend private night school, which is being conducted by several substitute teachers of the city schools at 417 Bright street. High school students are especially urged to attend.

ing the remaining days of October. Love affairs begun in this month will prosper. Clandestine alliances, however, will suffer from malevolent influences.

Finances are uppermost in the minds of many this month. Merchants especially are favored with brighter prospects. While no decisive or definite change will be noted, the trend of finance is definitely upward. Unemployment will slowly decrease. However, this is a time for taking care of old obligations, not for making new ones. Conservatism is still necessary in financial matters.

An upset in the sports world is forecast. A new star will be brought forward in amusement circles.

Taken all in all, October is a most significant month, the forerunner of many changes for the better. Use it to your best advantage.

The 17th will be found lucky for those who indulge in games of chance. Dreams which are dreamed twice in succession during this month have a meaning which it will be well for you to heed and interpret.

STORER-CHENEY DRAW

HARPERS FERRY, Va., Oct. 12. 1932.—The Golden Tornado of Storer College met the blue jerseyed Cheney teachers on the Storer grid-iron and a great game was played. The first half was scoreless with neither team getting much advantage over the other save that Storer made more first downs by rushing and by the fine kicking of end Goens. The exchange of punts was usually for a gain of thirty-five yards, and in this the Cheney kicked Brown mas but a little less effective than the Storer man. The game finally ended in a 0-0 tie.

TIGER CUBS WIN

MONTGOMERY, Ala., Oct. 12.—(ANP)—Going into the game harboring a year old determination to avenge a stinging defeat that marred an otherwise perfect slate in 1932, the Baby Tuskegee Tigers crushed the title hopes of the Baby Alabama State Hornets last night by the score of 7-0.

An offensive rumpus kicked up in the second quarter by Higgins, Jordan and Cunningham, the three musketeers of the Junior Tiger backfield, gave them the only touchdown of the game to which was added a safety later in the same period.

REFLECTIONS—OCTOBER, 1933

By WILLIAM PICKENS

That "United States Congress Against War," was a triumph over the newspaper boycott, 12,000 people were gathered together in vast audiences for the first night's meeting alone, and thousands continued to meet for 48 hours thereafter, without any support from the great daily press. This congress was one of the most important events of the world during that week-end, and yet only two or three of the great New York papers, dared to mention it, even as "news" after the Congress closed—and none of them had the nerve to announce it before it assembled. None of the so-called "capitalist" and militant press wanted to be responsible for lending any aid to the creation of this Congress. It was created in spite of them, and consisted of Socialists, Communists, and others who belong to no "radical" political organization, many being merely "intellectuals."

commander, and announced its ir-reconcilable fight against all radical political elements. We have been moving recently toward a sane recognition of the great fact of the existence of the Soviet government or Russia. The American Fascists propose to put a stop to all that.

When the Communists in their folly, meet the Legionnaires in their folly, there will be some trouble in this republic.

Although I regard neither group as fit to rule in America now, and hold both to be enemies on true freedom and democracy, my sympathies would be with the foolish Communists, for their folly is at least the folly of the oppressed underdog—and there is much more reason why they should be "foolish." The American Legion are the bulwark of privilege, power, and bigotry. May their failure be swift and decisive!

Another step toward Fascism—that is what the American Legion took for us when it elected a narrow bigot of Decatur, Ala., as its

PLACES OPEN TO YOUNG NEGROES IN REFORESTATION CAMP WORK

WASHINGTON, Oct. 9.—(ANP) With the ending of the first six months' period of enlistment in the Civilian Conservation Corps, Oct. 1, Director Robert Fechner, estimated that 100,000 of the 300,000 men enrolled would leave the service to return to jobs in their homes or to school or for other reasons. Their departure will leave room for that many new men.

The men selected must come from dependent families who are upon relief rolls. Social workers reported when the first enlistment took place that many young Negro men refused to accept places because they were fearful that they were being conscripted for army service or that they would be sent to forest camps in the south. It is felt that a better understanding of the service exists at this time and that a larger proportion of Negro men will now their way into the camps since their families form so large a percentage of the dependent families in most states.

PASTOR FOR FIFTY YEARS TO BE HONORED BY MEMBERS WITH ANNIVERSARY PROGRAM

The Fifty-ninth anniversary of the New Bethel Baptist church and the golden or fiftieth anniversary of the pastor, Rev. N. A. Seymour, will begin, Monday, October 16 and culminate Monday, October 23 with a grand banquet.

The Rev. Mr. Seymour was born in Kentucky and came to Indianapolis, while a young man. It was several years ago that he received his D. D. degree, conferred upon him at Conroe college, Conroe, Texas for meritorious work.

As a public spirited citizen, he is quite interested in civic and religious work, and is widely known. As a friend to ministers and laymen, he is in a class to himself, and to come within radius of his influence, you will find him to be a man of unusual ability as an organizer and pastor.

The Rev. Mr. Seymour was called as pastor to the New Bethel Baptist church in the year, 1883, just nine years after the church was organized.

REV. N. A. SEYMOUR

er its organization. The membership, at that time was very small, but through his consistent efforts and powerful sermons, the church has grown to be one of the largest congregations of this state or city. It was under Rev. Seymour's administration, that the old building was raised and the present edifice, erected. Therein one will find a large, beautiful auditorium to facilitate for carrying on the program of the church.

The anniversary program will include many outstanding musical numbers and some of the oldest ministers and pastors of the state will appear on the program. The affair is being given under the auspices of the Brotherhood and Ladies' Aid of the church.

Plan to attend this Golden Anniversary at the New Bethel Baptist church.

LYNCH TIME AT "DINNER TIME" IS TWO TIME FOR ETHEL WATERS

NEW YORK, Oct. 12.—(ANP)—Ethel Waters new song "Dinner Time", is creating more talk than her now famous "Stormy Weather." John Mason Brown, one of the big time critics says he would like it better if she would sing something else. The theme of the song has to do with a lynching bee—the mother of a family is setting the table for her husband and father of her children—has been lynched during the afternoon. No wonder some of the critics don't like the song. Others declare it is one of the best that Miss Waters has ever done. It is in typical Ethel Waters' style.

The Sunday school will open promptly at 9:30 a. m., Sunday, 11:00 o'clock, the Rev. Black will have for his theme, "Paul's Question."

7:00 o'clock, the A. C. E. league will discuss the subject, "How May our Meetings be made more helpful to us?"

8:00 a. m., the pastor's subject will be, "Power."

The Sunday School board will hold its first business meeting of the conference year, Friday evening at 7:30. All teachers and officers invited to be present. Rev. H. H. Black will be in charge.

Ethel A. M. E. Rev. P. C. Henderson, Pastor

The new pastor, the Rev. Mr. Henderson, former pastor of Ebenezer African Methodist Episcopal church of Evanston, Illinois, will occupy the pulpit at the morning service.

Barnes M. E. Robert E. Skelton, Minister

Unusual services will be held, Sunday. The pastor will preach at the morning hour using for a subject, "The Hands of Jesus." As a special feature of our morning devotion, Mrs. Deana Bryant will sing, "Wade in the Waters." The Barnes octet will sing, "Jesus is a Rock" and "I want two Wings."

At the evening hour, the pastor will use for a subject, "I am Ready to be Offered Up." The choir will deliver special music.

Simpson M. E. Rev. M. W. Clair, Junior, Pastor

The pastor will preach morning and evening.

Morning subject, "Athens and Jerusalem."

6:00 p. m., Vesper service, "Heroes of Israel."

4:45 p. m., Dr. B. J. Osborne will address the Young People's meeting of meats from the world's leading packers are being offered.

Thomas A. Theard, owner and operator, has installed the last word in modern refrigeration system, highly reassuring in the snowy-whiteness of its brightly trimmed counters. Mr. Theard, possessor of fifteen years experience in the meat business, has continuously proved his knowledge of the art of satisfying the most exacting demands of particular people who insist upon meats and meat products prepared in such a way as to conserve their highest food values and at the same time offered for sale at fair prices.

Began at Market Stand

Starting his industry in a small stand at the city market years ago, increase in business has compelled his removal three times, until recently he bought the meat packing house at 735 West Henry Street. He is also owner and operator of the Wicklers Meat Market, 403 West Washington street.

The Theard packing company is distributor of a popular specialty of sausage meats, including frankfurters, bratwursts, and bologna, to which they recently added the Theard "capicola" meat loaf, particularly tasty with cold beverages and beer.

The company specializes in the sale of meats to restaurants, hotels and cafeterias.

FLORIDA WINS

TALLASSEE, Fla., Oct. 6.—(Special)—Florida A. M. College defeated Morehouse today by a score of 13 to 7 in a game replete with forward passes by both teams. Although outtroughed and outplayed by Morehouse in the first half, Florida led at the end 6-0 by completing a long 35-yd. touchdown pass, Johnson to Pots. Fancee failed to kick goal.

Morehouse returned at the beginning of the second half with a re-invented team and tied the score in the third quarter on a blocked pass, Boswell to Young, and Bauer kicked the goal for the extra point, giving Morehouse a one-point lead. Then Johnson, Fancee's stellar halfback, ran through the entire Morehouse team for a distance of 55 yards, placing the ball on Morehouse's five yard line. Morehouse held for three downs, but weakened on the fourth, and Pitts went over for a touchdown. Wynn kicked goal, making the count 13-7.

The game was featured by the sensational all-round play of Johnson of Fancee and the consistency of Boswell of Morehouse.

EX-PUGILIST IN ROLE OF LABOR ORGANIZER

CHICAGO, Oct. 12.—(ANP)—Just so long as the Negro refrains from casting his lot with organized labor, he will be camping out from any real benefits in the economic system of our country, believes William George "Big Bill" Tate, former contender for the heavyweight boxing championship who is now active as a labor organizer.

After Bill's prizefighting days ended in 1928, he decided to return to his old trade as a butcher. Back in Montgomery, Ala., as long ago as 1907 and 1908, while pursuing his studies at the Alabama Agricultural and Mechanical college, from which he was graduated in 1908, Tate had worked as a butcher.

But unorganized butchers in Chicago were not making money. So the former prize fighter organized a local, No. 547, which now has 200 members, and is the only colored local in the International Meat Cutters and Butcher Workmen's Union.

"It was not necessary to organize a colored local in order to get in the Union," Tate explains. "The Union does not draw the color line. Our local in Fort Worth, Texas, has colored members. But, if Negroes were to have any representation in the International Convention, they stood a better chance through a local in which they were predominant, than they would have in a local where they were greatly outnumbered by whites. Through Local No. 547, Chicago, the Negro is able to have a voice in the big councils of the International."

Tate's work is to organize as an officer of the International. He left Chicago this week for organization work in Indianapolis, Indiana, St. Louis, Kansas City, Fort Worth, Dallas, Houston, Omaha, Denver, Sioux City, and St. Paul. He demonstrated such efficiency in organizing the Chicago local that the International Union retained him as one of its traveling organizers.

Mr. Tate believes that organized labor will be fair to the Negro if the Negro is fair toward organized labor. He does not believe that swivel-chair statisticians can do as much for the Negro worker as a man who has been a worker who seeks advantages according to methods approved by organized labor. He boasts of being a laborer himself.

I. H.—There are four girls who to a lot of flirting with me, which of these girls are really serious?
Ans.: Not a single one of them. These girls are interested in your good looks. I do not believe it wise at the present time to expect too much from any of these girl friends. In later life another will mean more to you.

S. C. Y.—Can I make my living singing?
Ans.: You will profit financially by giving recitals. But I cannot vision you in later years as depending entirely upon this. I believe that your husband will again come back into your life and I suggest that you write to him as he needs you.

B. G.—I want to know am I really poisoned?
Ans.: Far from it. You are no more poisoned than I am. Your sickness is due to the female disorder. You should locate a doctor that specializes in this type of work.

C. W. B.—Will you please give me some information about my mother's policy and what is best to do?
Ans.: I see you profiting financially from your mother's policy. Hold it by all means.

S. F. L.—I would like to know if I will ever see or hear from my step-daughter again?
